This villa is ideally placed in a quiet neighborhood on the edges of the village of Oppède, so you can equally be a few minutes into the village with all its amenities or exploring the surrounding countryside. The 4 bedroom house has a garden that wraps around the house with several terraces most notably the large dining terrace at the rear that leads to the pool and its shading oak trees. - Inside - The main corridor leads from the front door straight through the house passing the bedrooms and bathrooms to the large open entertaining space of the kitchen, dining area and living room. - Bedrooms - The house sleep 8 in 4 bedrooms with 4 bathrooms, all on one level. • Bedroom 1 has an ensuite shower area and w.c, with large patio doors leading to the front garden giving it independent access if required. • Bedroom 2 has two single beds and with access through to bedroom 1 can make an ideal family suite or can be made into a double as required. • Bedroom 3 has a double bed with a view to the side garden through large patio door giving access to a terrace, the dedicated bathroom for this bedroom is across the hall. • Bedroom 4 similarly has a double bed with a view to the side garden through large patio door giving access to a terrace, the dedicated bathroom for this bedroom is across the hall. - Outside - The garden at Maison du petit bois is ideal for relaxing and entertaining in. The terrace leading accessed from the kitchen or living room provide comfortable seating at one end and a dining table with seating for 8 at the other. A shading awning overhead helps to keep the area cool, and for the ultimate refreshment, there is the inviting pool. On the shady terrace area next to the kitchen there is a BBQ for cooking outdoors too. The garden wraps around the house and gives plenty of space for games ...
