Mas d'Apt is an 18th century farmhouse (French "mas"), that has been restored to reflect its provençal origins, while incorporating modern comforts. It has a heated pool, professionally landscaped grounds, well equipped open plan living and five comfortable bedrooms. Terraced areas to three sides of the house allow you to enjoy the gardens and the views. Mas d'Apt is just two kilometers from Apt, a vibrant market town where you can find bakeries, supermarkets, cafes, restaurants, even a cinema! The house itself is situated at the end of a private driveway, surrounded by its own grounds and farmland. It is a tranquil and relaxing place to unwind, and a great base to explore Provence. The layout of Mas d'Apt lends itself perfectly to family holidays. There is plenty of open plan space for everyone to get together, and plenty of smaller, cosy areas if you need a bit of peace and quiet. The ground floor is centred around a large, open plan living, dining and kitchen area. - Inside - Lounge area: The living area has large, comfy sofas arranged around an open wood-burning fireplace. Kitchen: The spacious kitchen has a central island and there's everything you need for cooking up a feast. The dining table is adjacent to the kitchen and easily seats ten. The kitchen/dining area opens onto the patios on both sides of the house, so catering for al fresco dining is really easy. Living room: At one end of the ground floor there is a separate living room with TV, as well as an enclosed fireplace. The TV has an Amazon Firestick which gives access to Netflix, Disney etc (guests will need to use their own accounts), French digital TV and there is a DVD player, stereo, and an assortment of music and films. Library: At the other end of the ground floor and down a few steps from the main living area there is a library room with a...
