This impressive 5 bedroom Provencal villa is set in a secluded and tranquil location. Explore the extensive grounds which range from beautiful gardens to terraced woodland and olive groves. Situated on a small hill, the house benefits from views over the grounds and woodland, past the church of L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue and out to the distant Alpilles hills. - Inside - You enter the villa into a hallway which is the hub of the home. From here you can wander into the 65m<sup>2</sup> living room and dining area, beyond which lies a fully equipped kitchen and summer dining area. To your left is an office/bedroom equipped with bunk beds. A hallway leads on to a double bedroom, a downstairs shower room with toilet, and a utility room for laundry. In front of you a staircase takes you up to the second floor to a large open landing where each of the three remaining bedrooms open out. Also on the landing is a separate toilet and access onto the veranda with far reaching views. The villa is decorated and furnished in a calming, relaxed manner which manages to combine elements of contemporary style with traditional Provençal touches and has a spacious 320m<sup>2</sup> of floor space inside. From the kitchen you can access the covered dining terrace, perfect for day and night time meals and is equipped with a pizza oven and BBQ grill. - Bedrooms - Maison Saint Antoine has 5 bedrooms and can comfortably sleep 10-12 people. - Outside - This impressive Provençal villa is set in grounds that range from beautiful gardens to terraced woods and olive groves. The setting is secluded and tranquil and you enter via a tree-lined driveway through a large automatic iron gate. On parking at the house you have the view to your left of the large 12m x 6m pool surrounded by its planted terraces and shading trees. The pool has sunloungers and a shower, and ther...
