Mas de Ruby is a beautifully restored five-bedroom Provençal mas, offering sweeping views across the Luberon hills and effortless indoor-outdoor living. Just a short walk from Maubec village, it features a private pool and air-conditioning for relaxed comfort throughout your stay. As you walk through the archway into the wonderful internal garden, you take a breath and feel all tension dissipate as this house will see to all your holiday needs in comfort and style. The house lends itself to a blend of indoor-outdoor living from the enclosed Eden of the inner garden to the many ways to access the garden from the inside. - Inside - Walking through the garden you come to another grand archway but this one is glazed and leads you into the generous hallway. From here you have access to several living rooms, the downstairs bedroom and w.c. • Grand salon: This is the ultimate relaxing/entertaining space, it runs from the front to the rear of the house and has views on 3 sides to the garden and pool. Furnished with plush sofas for relaxing and a welcoming workspace with a desk and chair. The middle living room: is an ideal quiet area with relaxing chairs and a fireplace. • TV Lounge: Moving through this room you come to another large living room with sofas and a large smart tv. From here you can take the stairs up to the bedroom level or continue through to the kitchen. • Kitchen: is very large and very well equipped with excellent quality crockery and kitchen equipment and air conditioning. There is also a large kitchen table running the length of the kitchen that can seat 10. The kitchen has a door to the garden ideal for serving lunch alfresco on the outside dining terrace. - Bedrooms - The house sleeps up to 10 people in 5 bedrooms. There is one ground floor bedroom and four on the first floor all of which have...
