The impressive Mas les Tour Ouest is a beautifully renovated French farmhouse, sleeping 12 people, with comfort and relaxation easily catered for. The house is generously proportioned being 300m<sup>2</sup> spread over 2 levels. The grounds are extensive with sculpted gardens, a large heated pool and views to the Luberon hills. - Inside - You enter the courtyard and enter into a central hallway. • Snug: From the courtyard the main entrance opens to a central hallway. To the left you come to a welcoming and calming area with vaulted ceiling, open fireplace and comfortable chairs. • Kitchen: Leading on from the snug you find a true chef's kitchen again with a wonderful vaulted ceiling. The kitchen is well equipped with LaCanche range stove, a 3m long central island, large stone sink, and work tops along the side. Equipped with fridge freezer, dishwasher and air-conditioning. The kitchen allows easy access outside to the rear of the house. • Dining Area: At the back of the kitchen is a round dining table with seating for 10 and from here you can walk through to the sitting room. • Utility: Housed here is a second fridge freezer and guest w.c. • Sitting Room: A large room housing four comfortable sofas a log burning stove and TV corner. Light floods in from the door and windows to courtyard side and from the large French doors leading to the wonderful west terrace. • Laundry: Behind the sitting room there is a laundry room with a washer and dryer. - Bedrooms - The house sleeps 12 people in 6 bedrooms, with 5 bathrooms. Three are 4 bedrooms on the first floor, one of which is a family suite (children's room accessible through parent room). One bedroom is on the ground floor and an extra one in the 'Pigeonnier' across the courtyard. First floor: • Master bedroom 1: with king sized four poster bed (180 cm) and ensuite bath...
