Originally a 17th century coaching inn, this is a stunning 6-bedroom conversion in 3.7 acres of land, near l'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue, and between Avignon and the Luberon.

- Inside - The house has a beautiful Provencal decor, with many of the original features and materials, as well as techniques, used in the restoration, to make an authentic and very comfortable Provence country home. With underfloor heating throughout, it is also an ideal winter or Christmas rental home.

• Kitchen/dining: You enter into a gorgeous big space with kitchen and dining table, opening out to the terrace and garden. The stone fireplace is the centrepiece of the room, along with limewashed walls and exposed beams. The kitchen has a professional cooker with double oven, 4 gas burners and a hot plate. The 1950s bar fridge with wooden doors serves as a drinks fridge, and there is also an American fridge-freezer with ice and water. The kitchen also has dishwasher, microwave, Nespresso and drip coffee machine. In the pantry are the washing machine and dryer.

• Living room 1: With massive stone fireplace and work desk, opening to the south-facing terrace.

• Living room 2: Sofa and armchairs around the fireplace, and TV with Canal Sat, including BBC World and CNN.

• Guest WC: On the ground floor.

- Bedrooms - The house has 6 large bedrooms, all with en suite bathrooms, sleeping 12 people. Two bedrooms are on the ground floor. All bedrooms face south to the view and each bathroom has a hairdryer.

• Bedroom 1: With a 1.6m/5.25ft-wide double bed and en suite bathroom with walk-in shower, double basins and WC.

• Bedroom 2: This room can be configured as two single beds or as a 1.8m/6ft-wide double, and has an en suite bathroom with walk-in shower, basin and WC. Bedrooms 1 and 2 are up the same set of stairs from the ground floor.

• Bedroom 3: W...
