Magnificent 8 bedroom bastide with heated pool, gym, large grounds and stunning views. Commanding a position on its gentle hillside overlooking the countryside of the Luberon valley this grand house has been renovated with a gentle hand to be stylish but respectful of its past. The house can house up to 16 people across 3 floors, air conditioned throughout for comfort and boasting large a myriad of entertaining and relaxing areas for all guests to find their own place. - Inside - The Lower Floor: The lower floor of the house is designed for entertaining, with a welcoming living room, a spacious and well-appointed kitchen, and two dining areas—one large and formal, the other more intimate for smaller gatherings. The open-plan layout, exposed beams, and tasteful interior decoration create an immediate sense of warmth and comfort. • Living Room: Flooded with natural light from floor-to-ceiling windows, this cosy sitting room features two large sofas, additional chairs, and a TV. • Dining Room: A generous dining table seating 12–14 guests, with views across the fountain courtyard and front garden. • Intimate Dining Room: Accessible from both the kitchen and main dining room, this space is ideal for children's meals or more private suppers. It seats 6–8 around a circular table and includes a comfortable reading nook. • Kitchen: The heart of the home, this large, fully equipped kitchen is perfect for creating memorable dining experiences. With ample space for group participation—or for a private chef to take charge—it combines practicality with conviviality. • Utility Room: A separate utility space with two washers and two dryers. • Guest W.C.: Conveniently located at the foot of the stairs. - The Top Floor The entire top floor is dedicated to leisure and relaxation, offering an entertainment haven for all ages. ...

pool is heated and measures 10m x 10m. There is a shaded terrace on two sides one with sunloungers and the other with an outside lounger and dining table. There is a kitchen building here so that meals can be prepared on the pool level where there is a fitted kitchen complete with fridge-freezer, hob and oven. There is a BBQ here too. Not to be missed is the wonderful 400 year old olive tree that grows next to the pool. Your privacy is ensured on the extensive 9 hectares grounds encompassing the house and much of the surrounding fields, some of which will be featuring sunflowers in 2023 and then becoming grape vines next year. There is much to explore and enjoy at the house and although you are relaxing in this countryside setting the restaurants and cafes of nearby Saint Saturnin, Roussillon, and Gordes are all within a 5 – 15 minute drive. -
